MAIN ACTIVITIES

- Deliver effective housing management services (as applicable to the specialist function you are currently operating in)
 - Tenancy Sustainment
 - Receive and take responsibility for allocated tenancy sustainment referrals.
 - Assess tenant needs and agree support to be provided with the Senior Housing Officer, including support delivered directly by Albyn and support required from external agencies.
 - Deliver agreed support and work with external partners to arrange and secure delivery of external support.
 - Maintain accurate records of interactions with customers and outcomes in Albyn's housing management systems.
 - Support delivery of Albyn's Fit Homes project, including assessing customer needs, allocations to Fit Homes and working with Albyn's Innovation Team to provide an effective Fit Homes service.
 - Identify needs and provide evidence to support development of funding bids and other internally or externally funded tenancy sustainment initiatives.
 - Income Management
 - Monitor, control and progress actions for the prevention or recovery of current and former tenancy rent arrears or other tenancy related debts.
 - Produce and monitor regular caseload arrears reports.
 - Take proactive responsibility for the prompt collection of rent and related charges across a designated caseload, to ensure maximum collection of our main source of business income.
 - Ensure timely and proactive management and early interventions in line with legislative Pre-Action Requirements (PARs).
 - Negotiate and agree affordable and appropriate repayment arrangements to ensure the collection of tenancy related debts.
 - Liaise with the local authority or relevant government departments on entitlement of benefits or other assistance with housing related costs.
 - Understand and apply the legal processes for non-payment of tenancy related charges, prepare cases summaries and paperwork and instruct appropriate legal actions to be raised by our solicitor as required.
 - Attend court hearings and supply evidence and witness statements where required.
 - Attend eviction enforcements to ensure security of the property and take possession.

○ Voids and Allocations

- Process tenancy terminations, including surveying the extent of any damage caused by tenants and costs to be recharged to the tenant.
- Assess and prioritise the relative needs of housing applicants and maximise customers' housing options through advice and access to the Highland Housing Register (HHR) and all other relevant options.
- Liaise with colleagues and relevant professionals to support customers with any medical adaptation needs.
- Liaise with colleagues to manage new development handovers and ensure prompt occupation by tenants.
- Allocate properties to appropriate applicants on the housing list in compliance with internal and external procedures and regulation, ensuring that all applicants are treated fairly and that void periods and rent losses are kept to a minimum.
- Liaise with the local authority to receive and deal with referrals for homeless applicants.
- Follow Albyn's processes to complete successful tenancy sign-up, including signposting and referral for any support to help the tenant sustain their tenancy.

○ Tenancy, Anti-Social Behaviour and Estate Management

- Manage and agree outcomes on all requests for assignments, successions, lodgers, sub-lets, household changes or any other tenancy dealings within required legislative timescales.
- Obtain and provide tenancy references with other landlords.
- Investigate reports of breach of tenancy, in liaison with customers, community representatives and partner agencies as required.
- Recognise & respond to sensitive or emergency situations relating to tenancy management issues.
- Negotiate and agree appropriate remedial actions with customers; and identify and implement appropriate actions for unresolved breaches of tenancy obligations.
- Understand the legal processes and remedies of breaches of tenancy, prepare case summaries and paperwork and instruct appropriate legal actions to be raised by our solicitor.
- Attend court hearings and supply evidence and witness statements where required.
- Attend evictions and abandonment enforcements to ensure security of the property, take inventories and arrange storage of furniture and possessions.
- Regularly inspect estates and neighbourhoods to ensure that areas are free from hazards and that tenancy obligations are being met by tenants and landlord, taking appropriate action where required.

- Help to develop and maintain effective internal and external working relationships.
 - Liaise with external agencies to develop successful tenancies and sustainable communities including participation in relevant working groups and partnership meetings.
 - Organise, attend and, when required, chair multi-agency meetings to enable effective partnership management of complex, high community risk or sensitive cases as required.
 - Practice excellent communication skills and apply a professional approach and behaviour to ensure the needs of colleagues and customers are responded to appropriately.

- Provide information and advice to customers on relevant aspects of policy, legislation, and their tenancy obligations.
 - Develop knowledge and understanding of Scottish social housing and homelessness legislation, and relevant local and national housing policy, to be able to advise customers.
 - Understand and identify vulnerabilities that may cause difficulties and refer cases to tenancy sustainment or specialist agencies for support and assistance as required.
 - Identify cases that require multi-agency input, and organise, chair, administer and participate in multi-agency case review meetings as required.

- Investigate and respond to customer complaints in line with the Scottish Public Sector Ombudsman (SPSO) complaints process and internal guidance.
 - Investigate and respond to complaints from customers, elected members, or other customer representatives.
 - Provide information to colleagues and managers to assist them with their own investigations and responses as required.

- Assist in the development of and apply relevant policies, procedures, and good practice.
 - Keep up to date with legislative, policy, professional and health and safety issues relevant to operational duties and ensure completion of minimum CPD requirements to maintain any professional accreditations.
 - Assist the Senior Housing Officer/Customer Services Manager to examine existing policy, work practices and systems with a view to continuous improvement.
 - Deliver coaching, training, and support to colleagues to ensure that duties are carried out competently across the team and successful delivery of customer service excellence.

- Engage with customers to develop and deliver local services in accordance with Scottish Social Housing Charter requirements.

- Participate in resident or other community group meetings, including consulting with customers and reporting back on aspects of service delivery.
 - Proactively work with residents and partner organisations to support community cohesion and neighbourhood improvements within policy and budget parameters.
- Carry out other duties to the standards set as may reasonably be required by the business needs of the Society.
